

Champion Blue Level Teacher Index

- academic language 70; students are exposed to academic language throughout the program
- adjectives 37, 38, 49, 50, 87, 88, 98, 113, 127, 153, 162, 188-189, 197, 230, 261, 281-282, 290-291; comparative and superlative adjectives 75-76, 250, 251; adjective derivations 222, 127; multiple adjectives 249-250, 270; possessive adjectives 114, 136
- adverbs 37-38, 49-50, 76, 87-88, 113, 127, 162-163, 188-189, 230, 250-251, 281-282
- advertisement See “text types”
- affix 37, 38, 58, 76-77, 83, 122-123, 127, 189, 194, 197, 222, 230, 282; see also “prefix” and “suffix”
- antonyms 31, 38, 50, 88
- ask/answer questions about data in a chart See “questions”
- ask/answer questions to clarify meaning
See “questions”
- ask/answer questions to obtain information See “questions”
- assessment Chapter 17: 63-65; Chapter 18: 100-102; Chapter 19: 139-142; Chapter 20: 173-176; Chapter 21: 210-213; Chapter 22: 240-243; Chapter 23: 272-275; Chapter 24: 300-303; End-of-Unit 5: 177; End-of-Unit 6: 304
- assessment and implications for instruction See Champion CD-ROM in the pocket on the back inside cover of the teacher’s guide
- autobiography See “text types”
- borrowed words 31, 39-40
- brainstorming 39, 98, 208
- cause and effect 49
- chapter test answer keys Chapter 17: 63-65; Chapter 18: 100-102; Chapter 19: 139-142; Chapter 20: 173-176; Chapter 21: 210-213; Chapter 22: 240-243; Chapter 23: 272-275; Chapter 24: 300-303; see also Champion CD-ROM in the pocket on the back inside cover of the teacher’s guide
- characterization 89-90, 154, 238
- clauses (dependent/independent) 188, 237, 269, 290
- cognates 46, 47
- commands/directions/instructions giving 189, 190, 287; multi-step descriptive commands and instructions 31, 50, 189, 190-191, 287
- comparative structures 194, 250-251
- compare and contrast 75, 194-195, 223, 231, 251, 253
- compound/complex sentences 208, 237, 269, 290
- comprehension check 35, 46, 73, 85, 111, 124, 150, 160, 186, 196, 219, 229, 249, 260, 281, 288
- conjunctions 49-50, 194-195, 221-222, 237, 269, 290; subordinating conjunctions 188
- connecting reading to own life See “reading” and “speaking”
- context clues 38, 50, 75, 88, 112, 113, 151, 153, 162, 186, 189, 197, 220, 222, 229, 230, 249, 260, 261, 281, 282, 289, 291
- contractions 261
- conversations See “speaking”
- describe actions See “tenses”
- describe how, how often, how much, and when See “adverbs”
- describe how much and what kind See “adjectives”

- describe people, places, and things See “adjectives”
- describe the main idea/details and sequence See “main idea” and “sequencing”
- details See “main idea and details”
- diary See “text types”
- differentiate opinions from facts 121
- directions See “commands”
- discussions, academic 194, 207, 208
- editorial See “text types”
- emotion 89, 90, 153-154, 238
- end-of unit evaluation End-of-Unit 5: 177; End-of-Unit 6: 304
- evaluation See “assessment”
- false cognates 47
- fiction 43, 70, 75, 77-78, 82, 94, 107, 110, 153-154, 158, 167-168, 169, 194, 202, 227, 231, 234, 238, 258, 266, 279, 287, 295
- figurative language See “idioms”
- figure of speech See “metaphor” and “simile”
- formal/informal language See “language”
- future tense See “tenses”
- genres See “text types”
- graphic organizers 36, 47, 49, 73, 78, 85, 111, 114, 115, 124, 125, 151, 161, 186, 197, 220, 229, 247, 249, 252, 253, 260, 270, 279, 281, 283, 289
- graphs/graphing See “graphic organizers”
- historical fiction 153-154, 168
- homographs 39
- homophones 39
- idioms/figurative/idiomatic expressions 44-45, 82, 98, 108, 121-122, 184, 195, 227, 247, 258
- instructions See “commands”
- intermediate language level, language objectives 22-24
- interview See “questions”
- journal See “text types”
- language formal/informal/alternative ways of saying things 190; see also “idioms”
- language forms See specific parts of speech, e.g., “noun,” “verb,” and so forth
- language objectives, intermediate language level 22-24
- listening specific purpose such as to gain information 58, 96, 135, 169, 204, 236, 268, 297; retell information 94, 133, 168, 217-218, 235, 267; engage, listen, and respond 32, 70, 158, 183, 295
- literary techniques 78
- main idea and details 123-124, 132-133, 167-168, 234-235, 266-267
- mathematical equations/concepts 107-108, 117, 147, 160
- metaphor 52, 270
- modals See “verbs”
- naming people, places, and things See “nouns”
- newspaper article See “text types (editorial)”
- nonfiction 43, 55, 60, 70, 73, 77, 82, 94, 107, 158, 167, 194, 202, 203, 227, 231, 234, 236, 258, 266, 268, 279, 287, 295, 296
- note taking 94, 123-124, 132-133, 167-168, 217, 234-235, 266-267
- nouns singular and plural 34, 45, 71-72, 83, 109-110, 122-123, 149, 159; countable and uncountable 34, 45, 72, 83, 110, 123, 149, 159, 261, 295; possessive 96-97, 113, 136; derivations 222
- object pronouns See “pronouns”
- oral presentation/report 40, 51-52, 62, 78, 91, 99, 117, 129, 138, 155, 164, 171, 191, 198-199, 209, 224, 239, 271, 283-284, 299
- outline See “writing”
- paraphrase See “restate/retell/paraphrase”
- parts of speech See specific parts of speech, e.g., “noun,” “verb,” and so forth

- past tense See “tenses”
- personification 78
- plot 90, 154, 238
- plural nouns See “nouns”
- point of view 47, 85, 121, 123, 125
- portfolio create 32, 71, 109, 148, 184, 218, 247, 279
- possessive nouns See “nouns”
- predictions 34, 46, 57, 72, 84, 95, 110, 123, 134, 149, 159, 185, 196, 202, 219, 228, 248, 259, 280, 288
- prefix 34, 37, 38, 46, 58, 72, 76-77, 83, 84, 110, 123, 159, 194, 222; see also “affix” and “suffix”
- preposition 50, 88, 136, 206, 282
- pre-reading 34, 46, 57, 72, 84, 95, 110, 123, 134, 149-150, 159-160, 169, 185, 196, 203, 219, 228, 236, 248, 259, 268
- present tense See “tenses”
- presentation See “oral presentation/report”
- pre-writing 39, 60-61, 90, 98, 115, 128, 154, 163, 208, 238, 253, 262, 270; see also “brainstorming,” “outline,” and “graphic organizers”
- pronouns subject and object 59-60, 97; demonstrative 50; possessive 113-114, 136
- questions to obtain information 295; to clarify meaning 35, 46, 72-73, 84-85, 111, 123-124, 150, 160, 185, 196, 219, 228-229, 248-249, 259, 281, 288; about data in a chart/graph 31, 43, 82, 183; ask/answer comprehension questions about a text 35-36, 46-47, 58, 73, 85, 96, 111, 124, 150, 160-161, 186, 196, 219, 229, 249, 260, 281, 288-289; interview questions 51; “wh” questions 96, 135, 169-170, 204-205, 237, 269, 297; “how many” and “how much” questions 260-261; positive and negative questions 261; ask/answer critical thinking questions 36, 47, 73, 85, 111, 124, 151, 161, 186, 196, 219-220, 229, 249, 260, 281, 289
- reader’s theater See “text types”
- reading recognize elements of characterization in literature 89-90, 154; identify characteristics of literary genres 77-78, 231; detect bias 223; connecting reading to own life 36, 47, 85, 111, 124, 151, 161, 186, 196, 219-220, 229, 249, 260, 281, 289; identify thoughts/actions of a character 46, 89; identify main argument 124-125; identify author’s purpose and point of view 34, 46, 47, 57, 72, 84, 85, 95, 110, 123, 134, 149, 159, 169, 185, 196, 203, 219, 228, 236, 248, 259, 268, 280, 288, 296; identify main idea and details 123-124, 132-133, 167-168, 234-235, 266-267; see also “pre-reading”
- reference/informational material 55-56
- research 56, 60, 97, 115, 136-137, 170, 206, 207, 238, 252, 253, 270, 283, 298
- restate/retell/paraphrase 123-124, 132-133, 167-168, 234-235, 266-267
- retell See “restate/retell/paraphrase”
- roleplay 137, 171, 183-184, 298
- root words See “affix,” “prefix,” and “suffix”
- sequencing 90, 154, 207, 208, 239
- setting 90, 154, 238
- simile 52, 270
- singular noun See “nouns”
- social language 70, 158, 295
- speaking retell information 94, 133, 168, 217-218, 235, 267; answer comprehension questions 35-36, 46-47, 72-73, 84-85, 111, 123-124, 150, 160-161, 185-186, 196, 219, 228-229, 248-249, 259-260, 281, 288-289; engage in academic discussions 32, 70, 183, 194, 207, 208; connecting reading/content to own life 36, 47, 85, 111, 124, 151, 161, 186, 196, 219-220, 229, 249, 260, 281, 289; conversations 70, 227, 258, 298; giving multiple-step directions 189, 190-191, 287; use new vocabulary and grammatical forms 38, 50-51, 60, 77, 89, 97, 114, 128, 136, 153, 163, 189, 198, 206, 222, 230, 252, 262, 283, 291; see also “questions,” and “oral presentation/report,” “comprehension check”

subject pronoun See “pronouns” suffix 37, 38, 49, 75-77, 83, 87, 123, 127, 132, 194, 222; see also “affix” and “prefix” synonyms 31, 35, 38, 39-40, 50, 88

taking notes See “note taking”

tenses present 36-37, 48-49, 58-59, 74-75, 85-87, 112-113, 125-127, 151-153, 161-162, 186-188, 197, 260-261; present perfect 186-187, 197; present progressive 197; past 36-37, 48-49, 58-60, 74-75, 85-87, 112-113, 125-127, 151-153, 161-162, 186-188, 205, 220-221, 260-261; future 36, 205, 229-230, 260; future progressive 186, 229-230

text types advertisement 291-292; autobiography 55, 60-61; diary/journal 110; career development 189, 190; editorial 121-128; e-mail 190-191; genres of literature 72, 77-78; Q&A 158-160; memorandum 190; political cartoon 202; reader’s theater 170-171

there was/there were statements 136

time line 134, 148

verbs regular/irregular past tense 36-37, 58-59, 74-75, 85-86, 112-113, 125-156, 151-152, 161-162, 220-221; modals 152-153, 162, 205, 289-290; see also “tenses” visuals create 40, 52, 62, 78, 91, 99, 117, 129, 138, 155, 164, 171, 191, 199, 208, 209, 224, 239, 254, 271, 284, 299

word structure 76-77, 127-128

words with multiple meanings 32, 55-56, 68

writing expository text 114-116, 163-164, 252-253; descriptive text 97-98, 270-271; narrative text 90-91, 153-155, 238-239; persuasive text 128-129, 262-263; autobiography 61; bibliography 115, 207-208, 253; characterization 90, 154, 238; citation 115, 206-208, 231; conversation 39-40, 70; e-mail 190-191; fiction 238; historical fiction 153-154; job application 189; memorandum 190; outline 60-61, 163, 208, 253; paragraph 61, 97-99 (descriptive), 163-164 (expository); persuasive letter 128-129, 262-263; political cartoon 202; reader’s theater 170; report 208-209; short story 90-91, 238-239; story frame 90, 154, 238; using literal and figurative language 97-98, 270; see also “pre-writing” writing review and editing 40, 61, 90-91, 99, 116, 128-129, 155, 164, 190, 209, 239, 253, 263, 271 writing process 39, 40, 61, 90-91, 98-99, 115-116, 128-129, 154-155, 164, 208-209, 238-239, 253, 262-263, 270-271; see also “brainstorming” and “graphic organizers”